Prayer Requests and Celebrations

Bill Storey had his CT scan on Monday and learned today when he went in for his chemotherapy that the doctors are so pleased with his chemo results that they have decided not to stop the treatments and do the surgery that they had planned. They will continue the chemotherapy and hope that it will lead to the remission of the cancer. There are a lot of risks with the surgery and a difficult and long recovery! This change of plans is very good! Bill thanks us for the prayers, support and cards. Pray that these continued treatments lead to full remission!

I have found that the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi has given me comfort in this past week. I hope it brings comfort to you as you reflect upon it now.

*Lord, Make Me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, union;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy;
Grant that I may not so much to seek to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and
It is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

God's Blessings!
Jan
